Are you unsure how to include a person with a disability in your summer camps; recreation, sports and senior programs? Whose role is it to make sure inclusion is being done correctly? Come learn some easy programming tips that can help make inclusion easier for EVERYONE. From activity modifications to universal programming you will leave this workshop with strategies that you can implement in your programs. We will review the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and key phrases within the ADA; explain the inclusion process, and discuss strategies and modifications for including a person with a disability.

Learning Outcomes: Attendees will be able to.....

- List the eight steps of the inclusion process.
- Define four key terms of the ADA.
- Describe three universal programming strategies
- Identify modifications that can be implemented in your programming, sports or senior centers.
